ALUABLE LIVES SAVED .- The Polar re of last week overtook three fair young nales who, even in the enlightened and ristian community of Wellington had not ted food for 25 hours, nor known the helter of a roof since the opening of the New Year. By the persistent efforts of two benevolent women they were rescued barely in time to save them from starvation and freezing. Their immediate wants were relieved and they were placed in a situation where their continued well-being and safety is assured and their usefulness hoped for. They were last summer's pullets.

Married Forty Years

The children, relatives and friends o Mr. and Mrs. Boice, of Rochester, cele-brated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding on Christmas. All the children and grand children were present, and a large number of relatives and friends. When the company had all arrived, Rev. Geo. Knapp in behalf of the children made a brief appropriate speech, and pre-sented to the yoked couple of years various useful articles to the amount of fifty dollars. Then all sang spiritedly, "We've Met Again." We then listened to the following interesting paper by

Mrs. Boice of Huntington:

"Dear friends, we have met here to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the wedding of this happy couple. Yes, for-ty years ago some of us witnessed the nuptial ceremony that made the lives of these two as one. Let us go back to that olden time and take a look at things as sought a home in an adjoining town), and stree daughters. The father and one three daughters. One dear son was snatched from their arms in infancy by the fell destroyer, death. The other children have left the parental roof for horacs of their own, except the youngest.

They have lived to find a balm for all earthly ills and griefs. As the venerable father, Rev. Sage solemnized their marriage, he prayed that they might live to build a domestic altar around their hearth-stone, and enjoy the fruits of a well-spent life, and now as we look in upon them to-day, we feel that that prayer is being answered." In addition to the above paper Mrs. Boice read a long poem of her own com-position entitled: "Last Evening's Remiiscences." But it is too long for insertion, and an attempt to give extracts would be doing injustice to the author. The next thing in order was a song en-titled: "When I was One and Twenty." Then we had a chorus from the childr When I was Around The Hearth," fellowed by a prayer by the Rev. George

Knapp.

Rev. Knapp also entertained the com-pany by declaiming several pieces. At this point I thought I heard a thousand voices from the oysters entreating, "Deal mercifully with us," but regardless of all their cries they were eage:ly devoured. Dyspeptic stomachs also said when they saw such a rich variety of cakes and other things on the table, "Lead us not to indulge." But things being so inviting it was too much for human nature. Mr. and Mrs. Boice looked elegant yet For the past 18 years the Dry Goods very modest. From a distance tore of Wm. White Winter Flint Wheat

By Putnam's Patent Process of Prepar-ing, Steaming, Drying and Rossting, and is a perfectly pure article, free from any adultaration whatever. IT IS A NERVE FOOD.

It can be used by those who cannot use Imported Coffees, and contains virtues and health-producing elements not possessed by tea or coffee.

Physicians universally indorse it as a healthful table drink. A prominent physician and surgeon of San Francis-co, Cal., writes us, "It is the Wonder

What the People Say of It. Having used the New Era Coffee for the past year, I believe its general introduction will prove a permanent good.

Dorchester, Sept. 31, 1878.

Having used it in my family for the past year and tested its excellent qualities, I be-lieve it is a real sanitary boon to people gen-erally. AFRED C. GARRATT, M. D. 37 Boylston St., Boston.

I consider it a most heathful and nutritious beverage and free from all the injurious effects of tea and coffee.

For ten months I have drank the New Era Coffee. The palpitation of the heart which I have experienced from drinking Java Cof-fee has entirely ceased. I think it excellent. N. W. STEARS. Ladies' 296 Columbus Ave., Boston May 20th, 1878

I have used the New Era Coffee for the past nine months, and so much pleased with it that I intend drinking it constantly.
